ABOUT WILDERNESS

Wilderness is a family of safari companies that offer a wide range of safari experiences in some of Africa's most spectacular wilderness areas. Our guests can choose from luxurious lodges, comfortable mobile camps, or adventurous fly-in safaris, and can combine visits to several of our destinations in one seamless journey. Our safaris are led by our highly trained and experienced guides who are passionate about their areas and have a deep knowledge of the wildlife and ecosystems they share with our guests. Our guides are also at the forefront of our conservation efforts, working with our local communities and our wildlife partners to ensure the long-term protection of our wilderness areas.

"We exist to increase the world's wilderness areas and to inspire and ensure our guiding is a force for good."
