Wilderness Mokete and the newly rebuilt
Wilderness Tubu in Botswana

The wild awaits in Botswana. Join us for a truly unique experience as we introduce you to the brand-new Wilderness Mokete, the only camp located in the vast Mababe area, as well as the reinvented Wilderness Tubu, an Okavango Delta sanctuary. Your trip begins in the Linyanti, at the legendary King's Pool.

18 to 24 June 2024

Set within the remote Linyanti Wildlife Reserve, King's Pool boasts a superb location overlooking a tranquil lagoon, perfect for relaxation and immersion in the surroundings, while at the same time helping to protect critical wildlife corridors. Guests have the opportunity to see an abundance of wildlife all around camp, or while out on game drives or from the comfort of the Queen Silvia barge.

A thrilling experience awaits at Wilderness Mokete, the only camp on a 55,000-hectare private photographic concession. The camp is set in a completely untouched area of Botswana, where the action never ends. Picture staggeringly large buffalo herds, elephants, zebra and tsessebe in their hundreds, with plenty of predators following in their wake.

Located on a private island in the heart of the Okavango Delta, Tubu offers an extraordinary wildlife experience, particularly sought after for thrilling leopard, wild dog and lion sightings. The newly rebuilt camp offers an elegant, modern look and feel, while still paying homage to its long history and beautiful natural surrounds.
