REGIONAL UPDATES

BOTSWANA

Kalahari Plains Camp

Wilderness Botswana’s lease to manage and operate Kalahari Plains Camp has come to an end, and all relevant processes to hand over to the custodians, being the Department of Wildlife under the Ministry of Environment, Natural Resources Conservation and Tourism and the Ministry of Land Management, Water and Sanitation Services have been followed with oversight of Botswana Tourism Organisation.

Wilderness has been privileged to operate in this exceptional area for 15 years, and to share this extraordinary wilderness destination with numerous guests, ensuring this gem in the Kalahari has been a haven for flora and fauna conservation. Wilderness Botswana will continue focusing on innovating its current product offering in the Okavango Delta and Linyanti Wildlife Reserve, as well as pursuing other expansion plans such as the upcoming opening of Wilderness Mokete in the Mababe Wilderness Area in April 2024.

Mokoro Activities – Jao Reserve Camps

Please note, the water on the concession has dried up noticeably due to low rainfall this season. Mokoro activities have been discontinued at Wilderness Jao, Jacana, Kwetsani and Pelo as from Monday, 26 February 2024. An update will be shared once this activity resumes again.
