WILDERNESS TOURING
CAPE TOWN

We have introduced a new Contemporary Pan-African Art Tour, and full description and rates have been added to the Window.

- A full day's exploration of Cape Town's leading contemporary Pan-African art galleries, namely Everard Read, Stevenson, and a private tour of the Zeitz MOCAA. Lungi Morrison, an expert on Pan-African art, will accompany the day out around Cape Town's inner art circles. Lungi has served in a senior management role at the Zeitz MOCAA, and is a polymath with global experience. She is the granddaughter of former Nobel Peace Prize recipient, the late Archbishop Desmond Tutu.
- The tour also includes a visit to the studio of renowned local artist Atang Tshikare (published in Condé Nast and GQ), where guests experience one of Cape Town's leading contemporary artist's personal take on his work.
- Art collectors may also use this opportunity to purchase unique pieces if interested; this is facilitated on the day.
