CAMP REVIEWS

Destination:	Wilderness Linkwasha, Hwange National Park
Participants:	Nosipho Mfundisi, Heinrich Jacobs, Sizwe Mkhize, Kefilwe Marumo
Suits which type of traveller:	All generations, families, couples, elephant lovers
Recommended activities:	We did: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Game drives (always thrilling) with our guide Tendai • The sunken hide (do not leave camp without trying this out) • You can also take guided walks (weather permitting) and do village visits
Cuisine:	The food at Linkwasha was excellent – warm, fresh, and visually appealing, with only brief waits between courses.
Highlights during visit/stay:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Upon arrival at Linkwasha, we were warmly welcomed with singing and drumming – a truly memorable touch • Definitely the hide! What a WOW. It is magical to be that close to different elephant families, big, small and even pregnant mammas. Elephant lovers will be in heaven in Hwange. • Site inspections of Little Makalolo and Davison’s camps. They gave us in-depth knowledge on how to place these in an itinerary. • The electric blanket and heater are most welcome as it gets quite cold in Hwange.
Caveats:	n/a

Destination:	Wilderness Chikwenya, Mana Pools National Park, Zimbabwe
Participants:	Nosipho Mfundisi, Heinrich Jacobs, Sizwe Mkhize, Kefilwe Marumo
Suits which type of traveller:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Guests who want a laid-back start or finish to their itinerary• Honeymooners / Couples• Families• Photographers• Water enthusiasts• Walking safari lovers• Solo travellers
Recommended activities:	The camp offers water and land activities, so there is something for everyone! We did game drives, nature walk and catch-and-release fishing – Sizwe managed to catch something, while the rest of us caught nothing but “log fish”. We were taught how to handle the rods, cast and set, after which we settled and watched the sunset over some local snacks and beverages.
Cuisine:	The chefs and bartenders throughout were amazing. The taste and variety of our food and high tea was above-standard. 10 out of 10, highly recommended!
Highlights during visit/stay:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Our guide Lovemore was absolutely phenomenal throughout all our activities. His story on his journey with Wilderness, and his extensive knowledge on the wild, its people and its animals, is truly one to hear about first-hand.• Getting semi-charged by an elephant while on foot – it was a thrilling experience!• The camp itself is intimate and quiet – what a beautiful place!
Caveats:	Just like Shumba, you may not want to leave. We felt as though we followed the Zambezi River and it just tied everything together so beautifully.
