GENERAL UPDATES

Singita has completed the redesign of Serengeti House – its four-suite, exclusive-use villa in the Serengeti's Grumeti Game Reserve. The redesign includes architectural upgrades such as an enhanced kitchen and a rebuilt wellness area, along with a more open-plan feel and extensive interior design changes. The interior decor has been designed to reflect the Serengeti's landscapes, curated to include beautiful pieces that honour African craft and creativity. Each of Serengeti House's suites features an en-suite bathroom, outdoor shower, and private terrace. Main areas include an eat-in kitchen, fitness centre, fire pit, outdoor sala, and 25-metre lap pool. Services include a private guide, chef, and host.
