SURRENDER TO THE WILD

Unfenced. Untamed. Unpredictable. Join us to discover two newly reimagined camps in the Okavango Delta at Wilderness Tubu Tree and Wilderness Chitabe, where luxurious comforts meet authentic safari experiences. Then journey to Wilderness DumaTau in the Linyanti where wildlife sets the pace, and nature rules.

19 to 25 October 2025

Inside each of us is a call to visit wild places. Heed that call at Wilderness Tubu Tree in the heart of Botswana's Okavango Delta, set on its own private island. Here, elevated tents on raised platforms offer breathtaking views and easy access to a vast wilderness teeming with iconic African wildlife. Discover sights and stories that are genuinely rare and unrepeatable.

WILDERNESS TUBU TREE

Grab your camera for some of the best wildlife photo ops in Africa at Wilderness Chitabe. This is a renowned predator hotspot in the Okavango Delta. Ideally located on private conservation land, bordered on the north by the famed Moremi Game Reserve, Chitabe offers a mosaic of habitats that support outstanding wildlife numbers and biodiversity, and some of the most thrilling predator-prey sightings on Earth making it a fantastic year-round safari destination.

WILDERNESS CHITABE

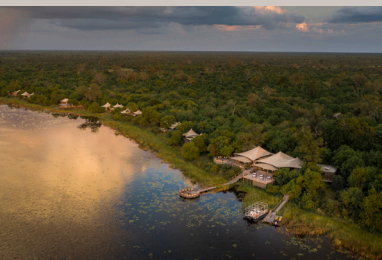

Home to Africa's highest density of elephants and plenty of predators, the Linyanti and Wilderness DumaTau offers exceptional encounters with herds of these majestic animals. Set directly on the river, here the game viewing is outstanding, with wildlife frequently moving through the camp. Add to that a spa, a lagoon-side fire pit and your own private pool overlooking the water, and it's no wonder DumaTau is an award-winning camp.
