

WILDERNESS

A LUXURY BOTSWANA JOURNEY
WITH CRAIG GLATTHAAR

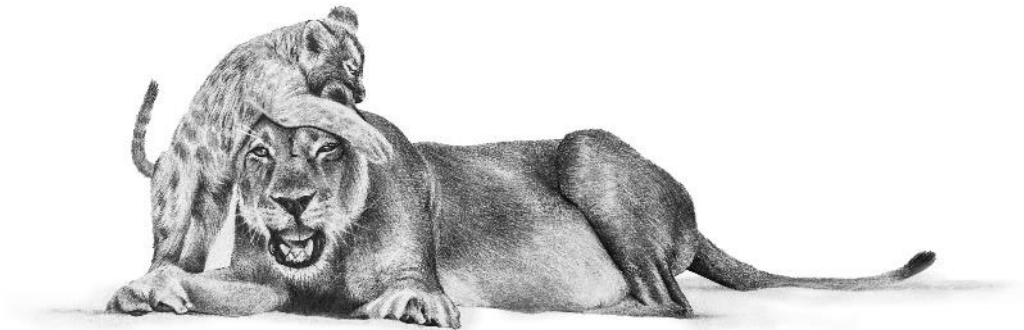

SPOTLIGHT ON BOTSWANA

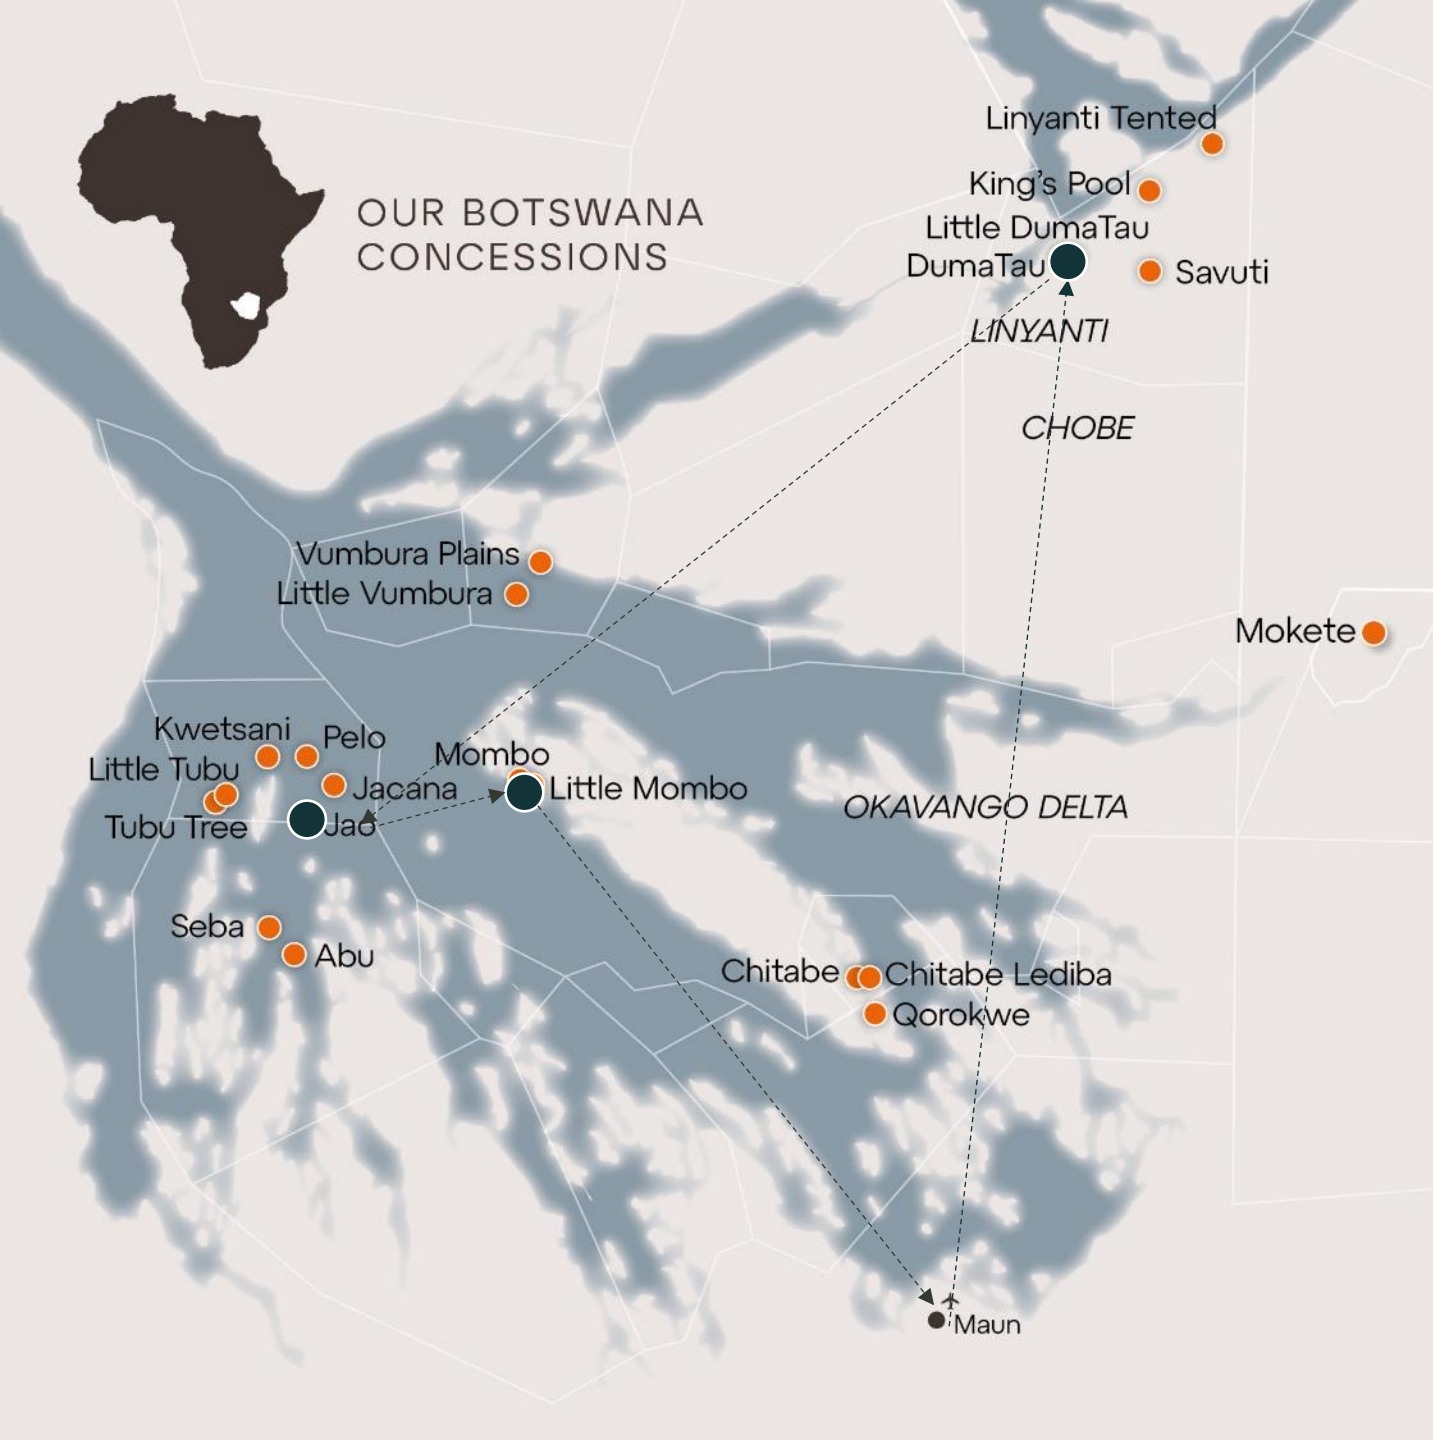

Craig Glatthaar, Wilderness Head of Sales: Americas, has assembled this itinerary.

Craig's experience as a private guide, his work with Wilderness, and his training as a conservation scientist have given him extensive and valuable insight into safaris throughout the seasons. Below are his recommendations for an unforgettable Botswana safari in the summer season.

Place: Wilderness DumaTau is nestled deep within the vast Linyanti Wildlife Reserve, on the northernmost fringe of Botswana. The camp takes full advantage of its unique access to 45 kilometres (28 miles) of exclusive-traversing river frontage along both the Linyanti River and the Savuti Channel.

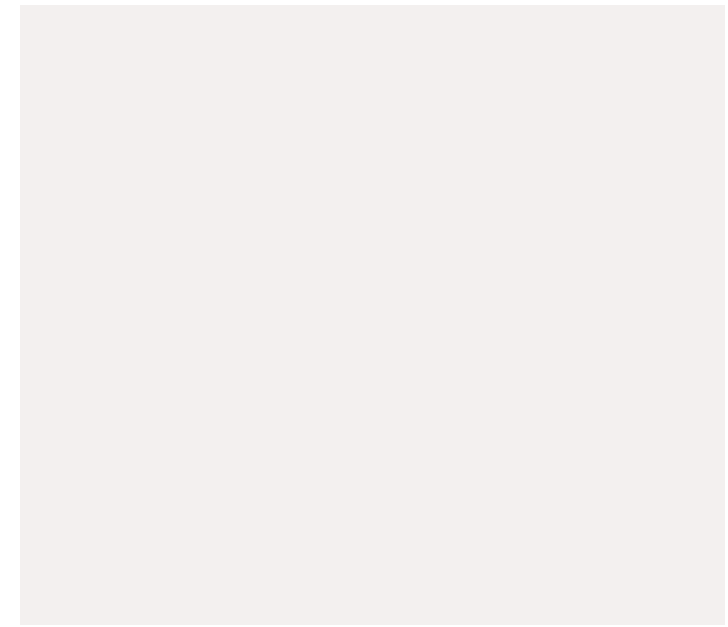

Accommodation: Each guest suite has a comfortable indoor lounge, a spacious bathroom with indoor and outdoor showers. The luxurious guest suites are raised off the ground to take full advantage of the outstanding riverfront views. A sliding gauze door in the back of the tent improves airflow through the suite, while the en-suite facilities include a sliding fabric wall that can be closed to ensure absolute privacy. An extended deck, with private plunge pool, and awnings create a relaxing shaded space to soak in the views and watch the wildlife moving past.

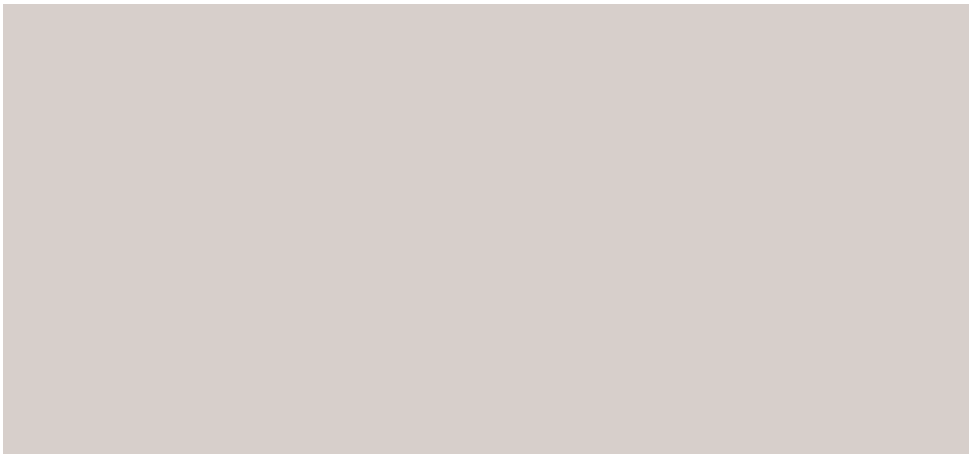

CRAIG SUGGESTS: DUMATAU

- Unparalleled Elephant encounters & predator sightings:
Home to Africa's highest concentration of elephants, DumaTau offers front-row seats to megaherds moving through ancient wildlife corridors. The Linyanti is also a prime location for year-round predator sightings, including lion, leopard, and hyena.
- Wellness in the wild:
Overlooking the Osprey Lagoon, the camp's Osprey retreat invites holistic wellness, with a fully-equipped spa, gym, pool, and shaded deck.
- Exceptional safari experiences:
Guests can explore the vast Linyanti Wilderness Reserve on day and night game drives, guided walks, and boating safaris along the Linyanti River and Savuti Channel. Helicopter flights provide a breathtaking aerial perspective (available at an additional cost).
- Spacious luxury:
Each ultra-spacious 142 m² suite, including a family unit, features uninterrupted lagoon views, a private plunge pool, and close-up wildlife encounters from the comfort of an elevated wooden deck.

Place: Surrounded by riverine forests and vast floodplains, Wilderness Jao is the archetypal Okavango Delta camp and a lush haven for wildlife. The camp (rebuilt in 2019, in its same picturesque location), is an architectural masterpiece designed to flow with nature and delight at every turn.

Accommodation: The camp is a sculptural marvel of natural and recycled materials – of steel, wood, and glass. Jao boasts towering, spacious interiors that embrace the light and the bush and feature striking design elements, curated to create the ultimate African safari experience. Guests may choose between five expansive safari suites, or two ultra-luxe villas with private plunge pools and their own private butlers, chefs, guides and vehicles. This is the perfect Delta hideaway for small groups, families or couples.

CRAIG SUGGESTS: JAO

- A true Okavango Delta sanctuary – Surrounded by riverine forests and vast floodplains, Wilderness Jao is a stunning architectural masterpiece that blends in with the natural surrounds, offering an immersive Delta experience in the heart of this UNESCO-listed wonder.
- Extraordinary safari adventures – Guests can explore the ever-changing landscape by vehicle, boat, or mokoro, with game drives on Hunda Island, thrilling full-day excursions, and exceptional wildlife encounters, from lions hunting lechwe to elephants wading through the channels.
- Unparalleled luxury & privacy – Five expansive suites and two ultra-luxe villas provide the ultimate Delta retreat, complete with private plunge pools, personal butlers, chefs, and exclusive-use guides and vehicles for a bespoke safari experience.
- A multi-sensory escape – The two-storey main area features a striking gallery-museum, wine cellar, boma dining under the stars, and a bird's nest-style pool gazebo overlooking the water. The award-winning spa offers indulgent treatments inspired by the natural surroundings.

Wilderness Mombo

8 tents
(1 family)

100% solar

Gym

Game drives

Hide

Helicopter flips

Spa
(extra cost)

Place: This part of the Okavango Delta is renowned for exceptional game viewing, particularly in summer when all manner of species congregate naturally here. With its mix of habitats attracting large herds, followed by predators in vast numbers and variety, discover why Mombo is truly the ‘Mother of all Camps’. Pristine floodplains, meandering channels and palm-fringed islands make up the Eden that is the Okavango Delta – a UNESCO World Heritage site where the water is so pure and clear, you can drink it.

Accommodation: Each spacious canvas suite is a private oasis. The suites comprise an indoor lounge area, separate bedroom and bathroom, indoor and outdoor showers, elegant copper bathtub, and an outdoor private sala with a double day bed, sunken couch, private plunge pool, and wrap-around veranda – a total immersion in the bush.

CRAIG SUGGESTS: MOMBO

- Unrivalled game viewing – Known as the ‘Place of Plenty,’ Wilderness Mombo offers Botswana’s finest year-round wildlife encounters, with abundant prey drawing large populations of predators, including lions, leopards, wild dogs, and cheetahs.
- A spectacular Delta setting – Located in the heart of the Moremi Game Reserve, Mombo’s pristine floodplains, meandering channels, and palm-dotted islands create an Eden-like environment within the Okavango Delta, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
- Exclusive, award-winning luxury – Elevated canvas suites with expansive decks provide front-row views of the wildlife-rich plains, while the camp’s sustainable design, repurposed materials, and 100% solar power ensure a minimal footprint.
- Immersive safari experiences – Game drives, hide-viewing, and optional helicopter flights offer unparalleled wildlife encounters, while tranquil evenings on the deck and under the stars complete the ultimate safari.
- A legacy of conservation leadership – As a pioneer in conservation tourism, Wilderness Mombo supports local communities and leads sustainable safari practices, ensuring the continued protection of the Delta’s diverse ecosystem.
