

06

WILDERNESS

PELO

UNIQUE SELLING POINTS

Pelo

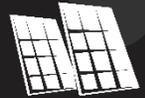

- An intimate, unpretentious camp that offers a pure water experience in the core of the Delta.
- Explore the Delta and its scenic waterways in the same way its tribal inhabitants have done over the centuries: by mokoro – a traditional dugout boat.
- Pelo means heart in Setswana – a fitting name for a camp located on a heart-shaped island in the heart of the Okavango Delta and at the heart of the experience: the water-bound wilderness.
- Pelo's low-impact, carbon-neutral activities allow unobtrusive wildlife viewing and a gentle connection with its aquatic surroundings and specialised wildlife.

About Pelo

5 tents

100% solar

Pool

Mokoro

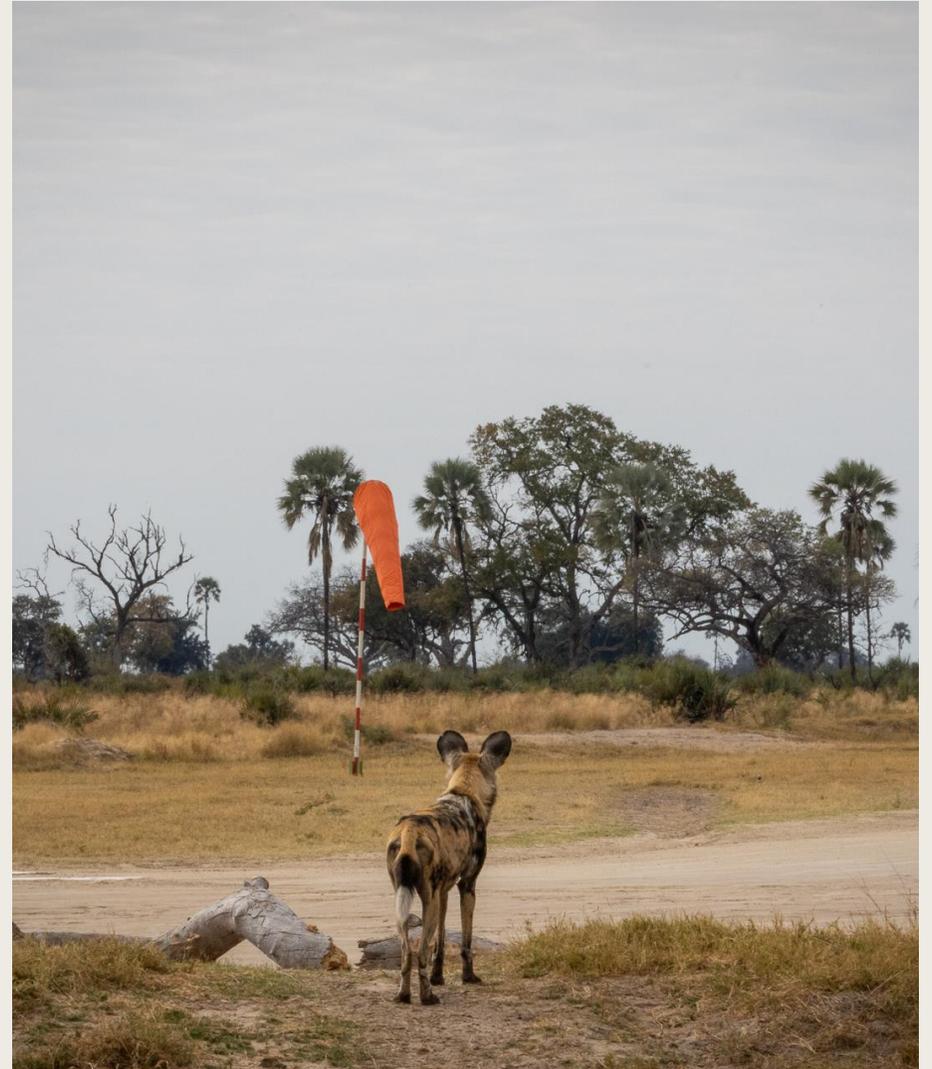

Boating

Guided nature walks

Access to Pelo

- Airstrip name: Jao Airstrip
- Duration to camp: An approximately 45 to 75 minute boat transfer

PELO PURPOSE

Light footprint

Peló is an excellent example of a light-footprint camp, built using natural materials, operating on 100% solar power, and offering low-impact, carbon-neutral activities.

ACCOMMODATION

Heart-shaped island

- Shaded by a sublime canopy of trees, just five en-suite tents make up this intimate Okavango Delta safari camp.
- The convivial main area has a plunge pool, boma and raised deck alongside its lounge and dining area.

MAIN AREA

CAMP LAYOUT

