JACANA

UNIQUE SELLING POINTS

Jacana

- An intimate and authentic Okavango experience with visual, tangible exposure to the seasonal Delta waters as the camp is situated on a small island.
- The semi-permanent water allows encounters with the fascinating creatures that flourish in this unique environment, from hippos, crocodiles and water-loving elephants to a wealth of waterbirds, including the emblematic African jacana.
- Numerous Okavango specials abound, including wattled crane, Pel's fishing owl, sitatunga and red lechwe.
- The essence of the Okavango is experienced while peacefully floating along its clear, quiet channels in a mokoro (traditional dugout canoe).

JACANA PURPOSE

Travel with purpose

Jacana is dedicated to, and involved with, projects that support community upliftment – including hosting Children in the Wilderness camps, partnering with the Tubu Joint Management Committee, and supporting the Pack for a Purpose initiative.

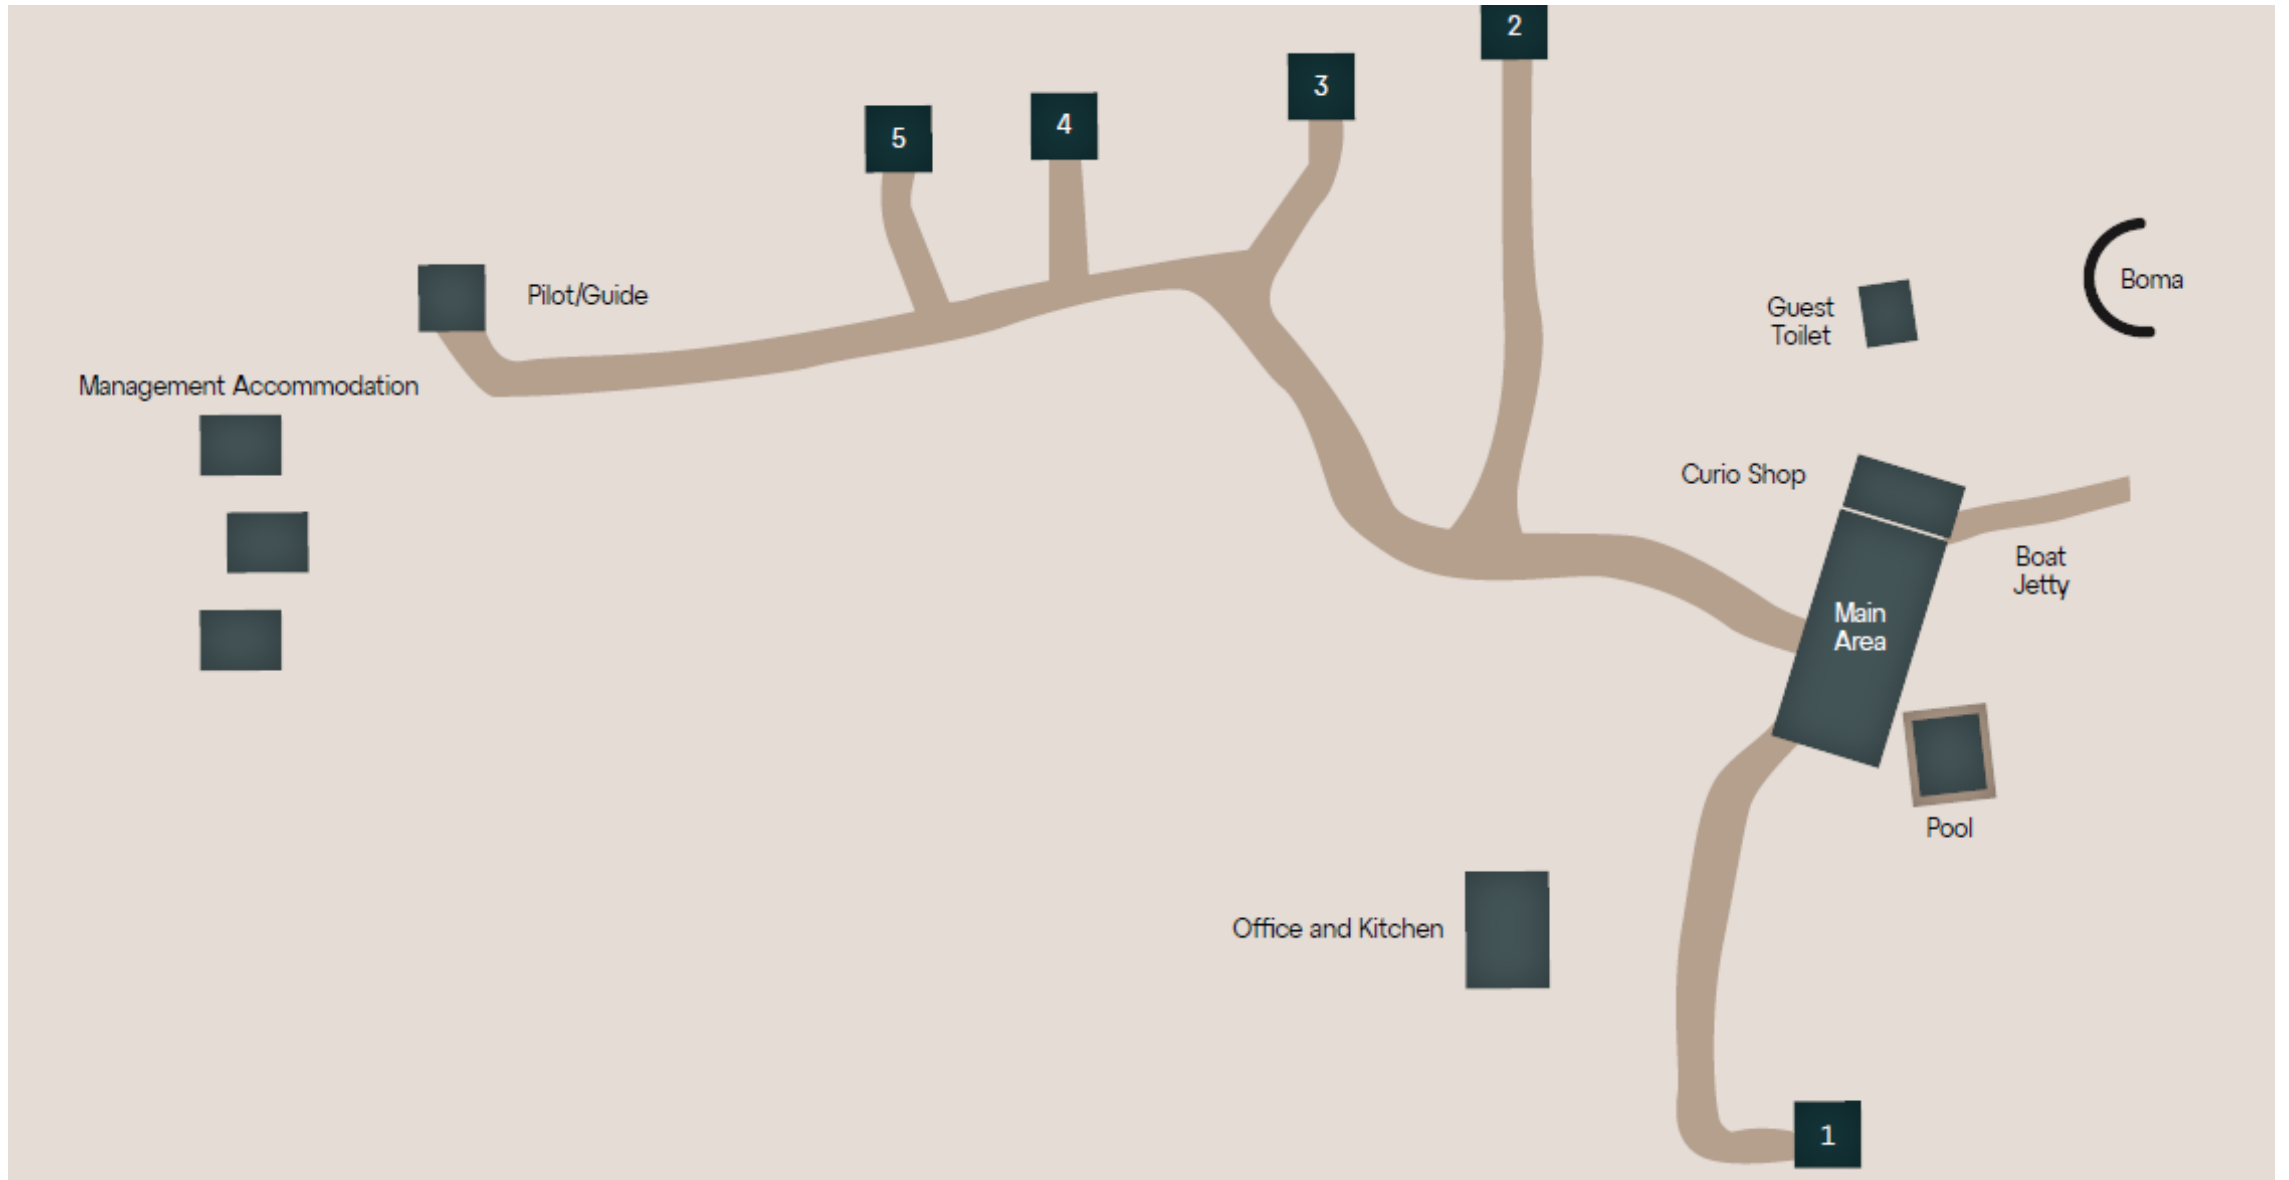

ACCOMMODATION

A true water camp

- Jacana is a true water camp on a small island nestled amongst dense palms and other magnificent trees.
- An intimate experience with just five well-appointed tents raised on wooden decks to maximise views of the broad channels fronting the camp

CAMP LAYOUT

Making us feel welcome and special. The staff are so kind. Thank you for the incredibly kind birthday dinner by the pool. I'll treasure this memory always.
