

WILDERNESS

DORO NAWAS

UNIQUE SELLING POINTS

Doro Nawas

- As a joint venture with the Doro !Nawas Conservancy, the camp offers a true cultural immersion.
- Guided nature drives and walks take in the dramatic scenery, including tabletop outcrops, small canyons, dry riverbeds and golden savannah, and the amazing animals that live within them.
- The camp is an excellent base for exploring Damaraland's fascinating ancient history and incredible geological phenomena: Twyfelfontein, the Petrified Forest, Burnt Mountain and Organ Pipes.
- After dark, discover fascinating critters on a walk, or sleep out under Namibia's legendary starry skies and be lulled to sleep on your veranda by the evocative night sounds of Africa.

DORO NAWAS PURPOSE

Partnering with the community

Doro Nawas is a joint venture between Wilderness, the Doro !Nawas Conservancy and a Namibian empowerment company, meaning guests contribute to the economic growth of the local community.

ACCOMMODATION

Panoramic views

- Resting on the edge of the dry Aba-Huab River, Doro Nawas has 16 wood, canvas and thatch rooms (including a family unit), with glorious, otherworldly panoramas stretching in every direction.
- The airy verandas offer incredible views by day, and a resting place by night from which to gaze at – and fall asleep under – the canopy of infinite stars.

My experience was 5-Star. I loved everything about this place, the people, food, accommodation. Stephanus was amazing, the best guide. I enjoyed everyone - Catherine, Irene, and Theodora. The food was excellent. The people were awesome.
