KULALA DEERT LODGE PURPOSE

Transformation into wilderness

Once farmland used for subsistence goat farming, the Kulala Wilderness Reserve had very little indigenous wildlife. In 1996 Wilderness stepped in to rehabilitate the area and today the land and its wildlife have returned to their former glorious natural state.

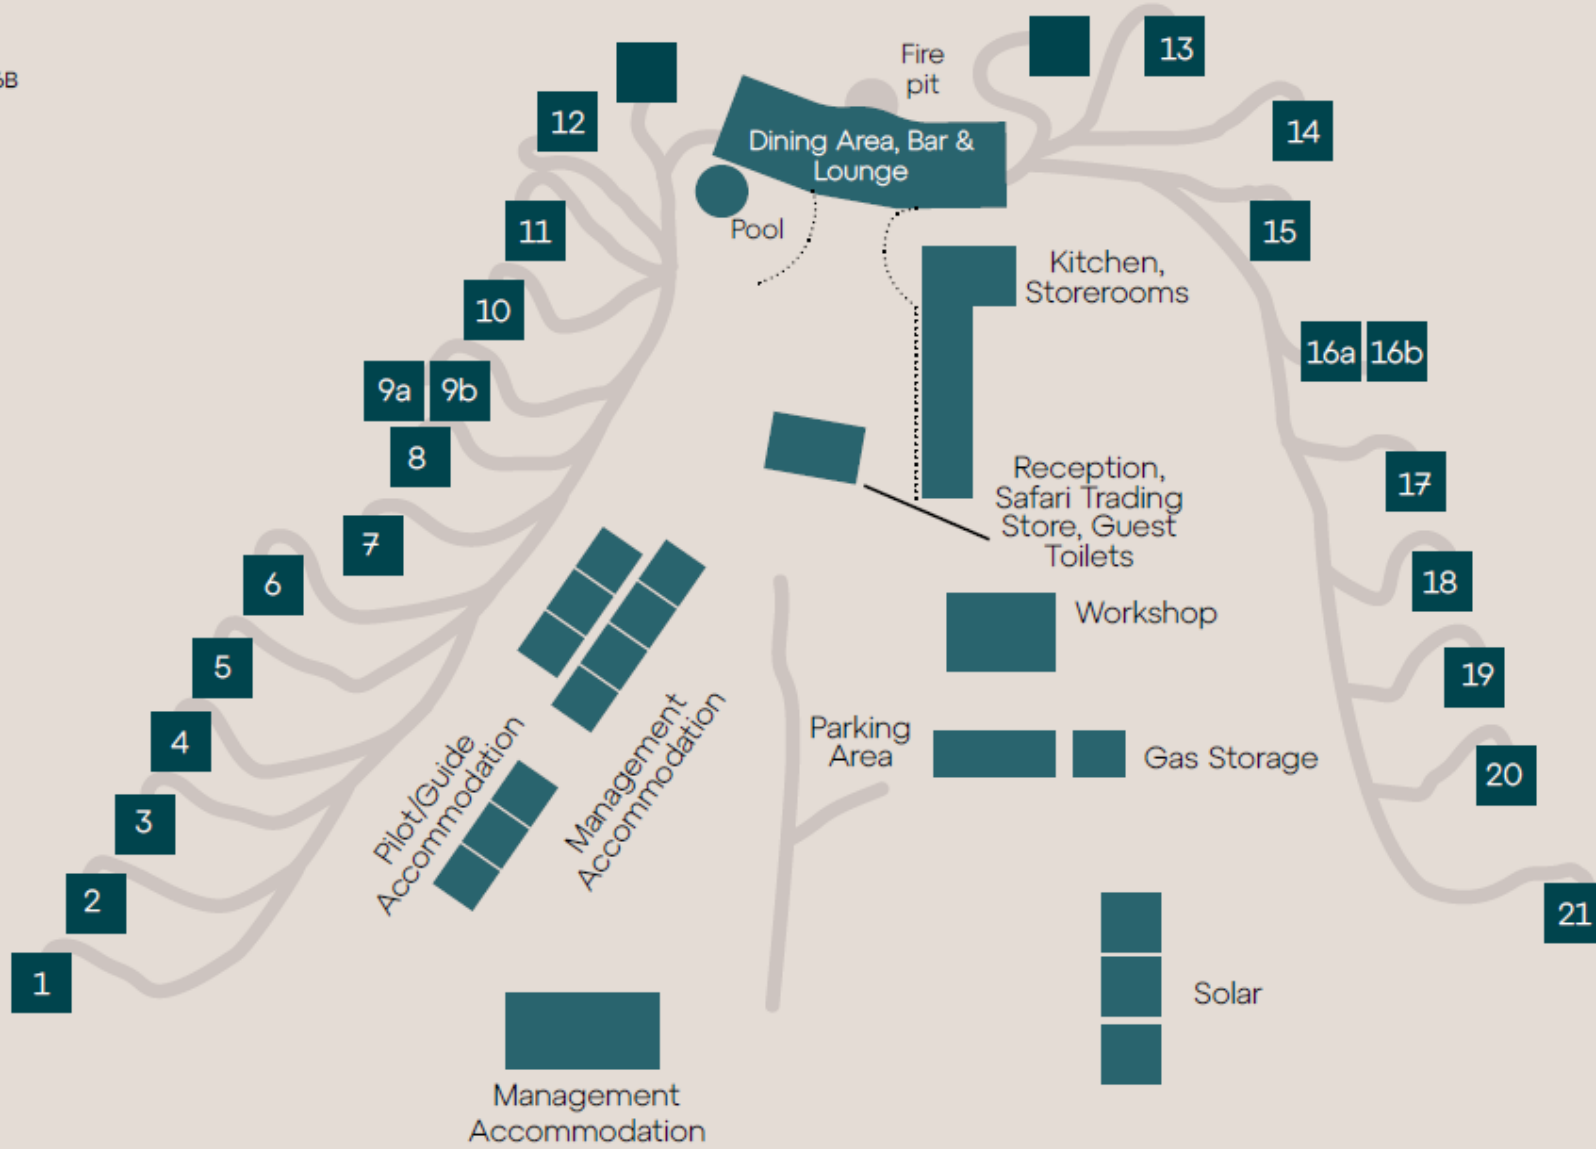

ACCOMMODATION

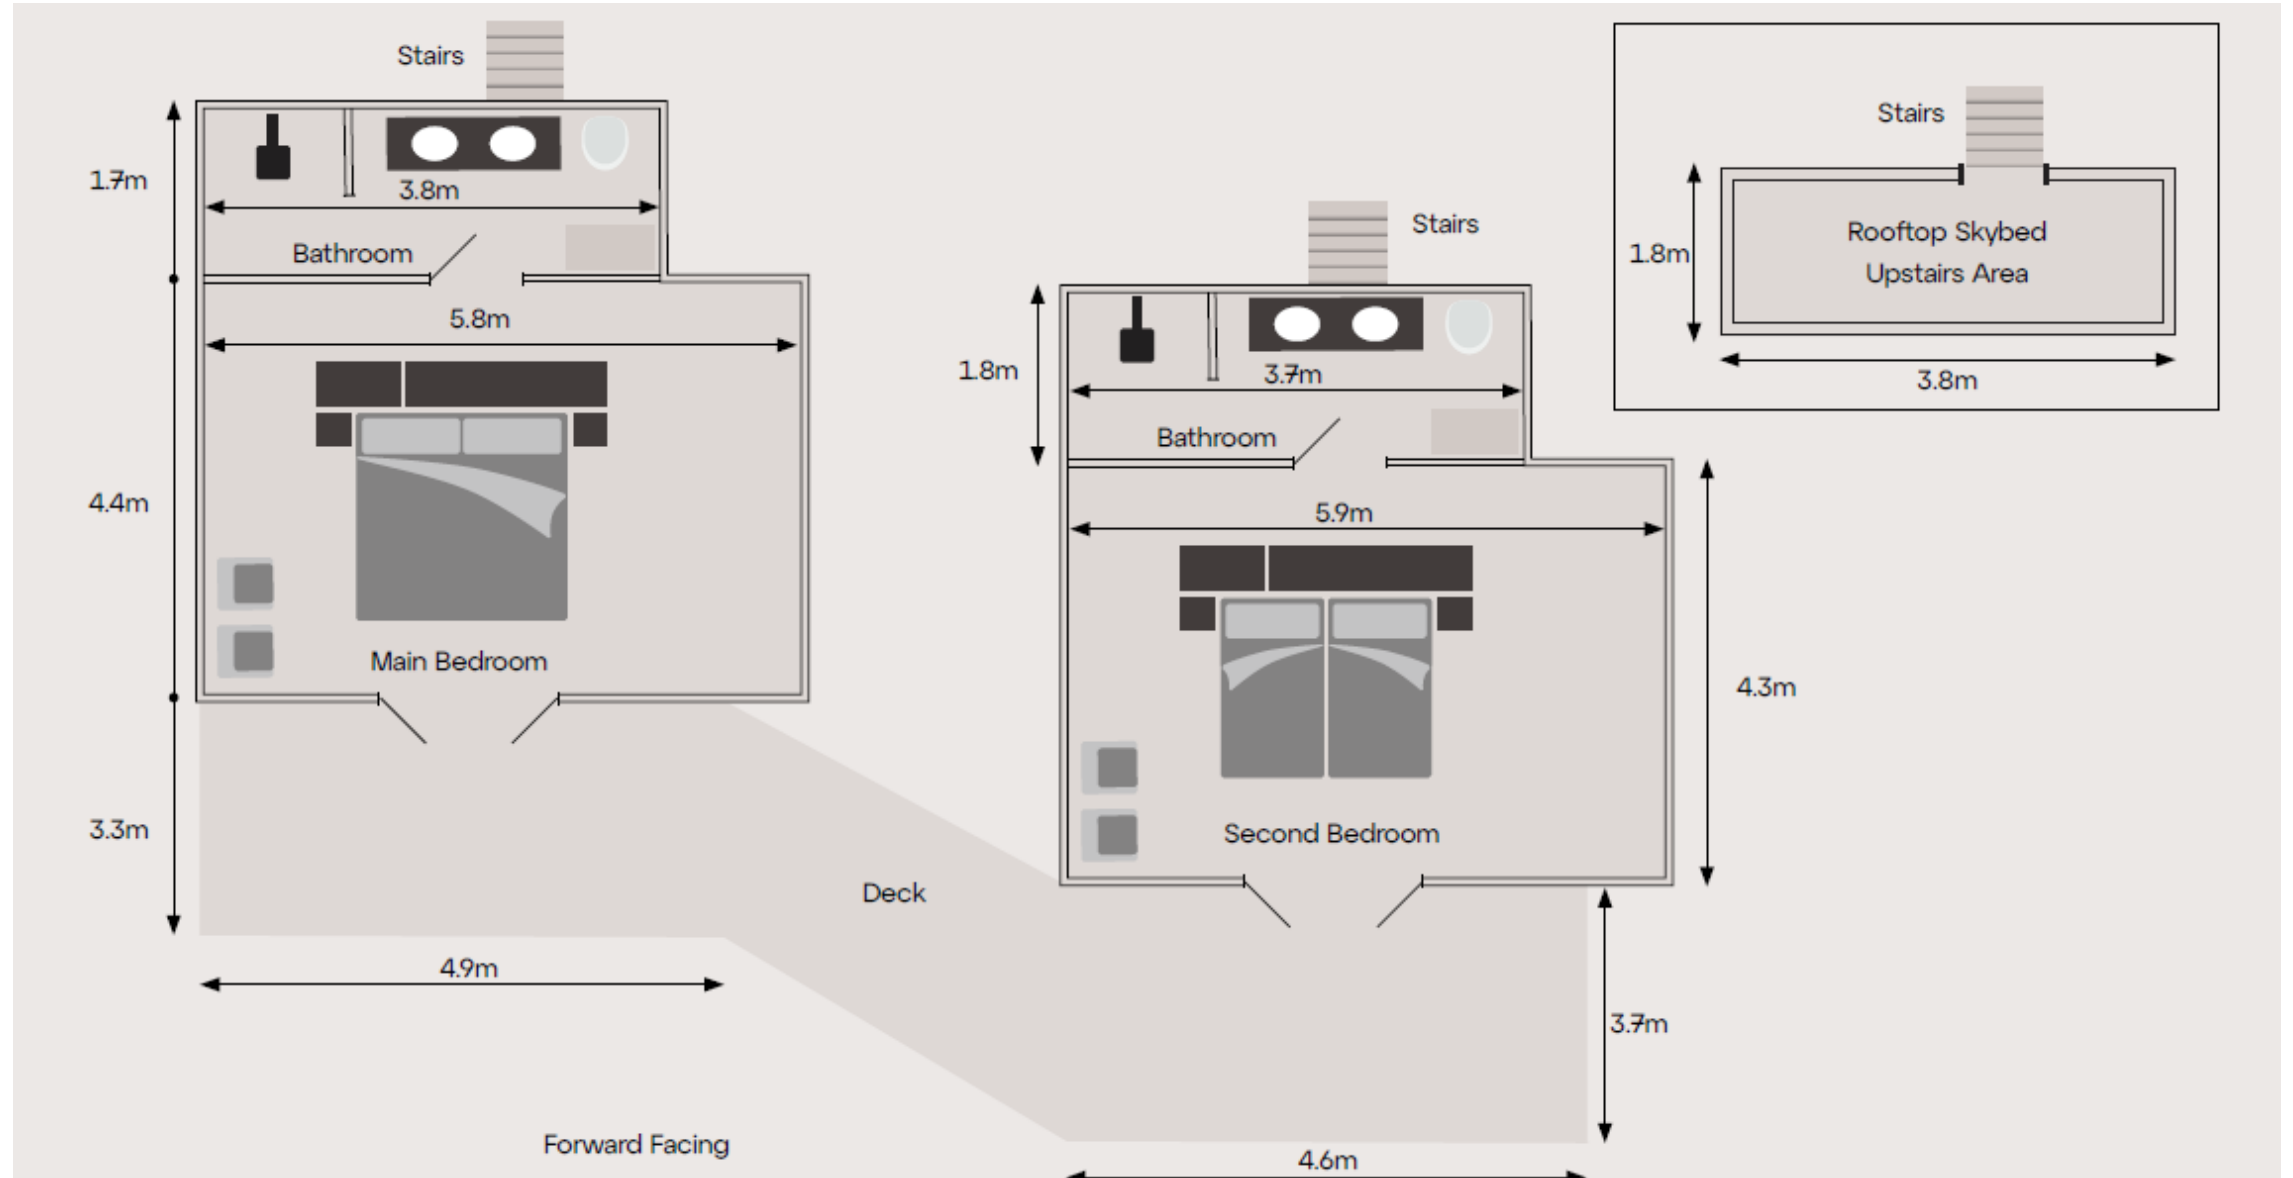

Perfect for families

- Comprising 23 units (including two family units), Kulala Desert Lodge is a convivial camp well suited to groups, families and self-drive guests.
- Each canvas and thatch room has a flat rooftop, ideal for sleep-outs under the extraordinary night sky.

A person stands in silhouette on a dark, sloping hill in the foreground, looking out over a vast, hazy landscape under a warm, golden sunset sky. Bare tree branches hang down from the top of the frame, framing the scene. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

We stayed as a family for 3 glorious nights and days. Each and every person was extraordinary and welcoming! The setting of the lodge is otherworldly, but the kindness of the staff made our stay so very special. The food was fabulous. We are leaving with such happy memories! Thank you!
