

ACTIVITIES AND FACILITIES

6 tents
(1 family)

Combination power

Pool

Sleep-out deck

Game drives
(night & day)

Log-pile hide

Community experience

Nature walk

Conservation experience

ABOUT THE AREA

Wilderness Little Makalolo is a charming, remote camp in the heart of Hwange National Park. With access to both the park and the exclusive Linkwasha Private Wilderness Reserve, it offers exceptional year-round game viewing, nature walks, and unforgettable hide-based wildlife encounters. The camp's warm hospitality and secluded setting create an authentic, meaningful safari experience.

CAMPS TO COMBINE WITH

- Toka Leya
- Ruckomechi

ACCESS TO CAMP

- Airstrip: Linkwasha Airstrip
- Duration to Camp: Approximately 50 to 60 minutes

HIGHLIGHTS

- Hwange is Zimbabwe's oldest and largest national park.
- Open plains, woodlands, and year-round water draw large herds of plains game and predators.
- Wilderness Little Makalolo offers walks, game drives, and close-up views of elephants and buffalo from its log-pile hide.
- Guests enjoy exclusive access to 34,000 ha of private wilderness.

BEST TIME TO TRAVEL

December to March

- A season of abundance as antelope enter calving season, and predator activity increases
- Excellent game viewing on the Ngamo Plains in south-eastern Hwange
- Summer migrant birds in full breeding plumage
- Superb photographic opportunities with vibrant colours, soft light, and dynamic wildlife scenes

April to May

- Pleasant, warm days with a moderate climate
- Transitional season showcasing both green and dry conditions
- Unique wildlife and landscape dynamics as the season shifts

June to November

- Limited water leads to large wildlife concentrations around waterholes
- Excellent visibility in dry, leafless woodland
- Cool and dry, with temperatures gradually rising toward October

WILDERNESS

LITTLE MAKALOLO

WILDERNESS LITTLE MAKALOLO

