

ASSOCIATED PRODUCT
GENERAL UPDATES

Cape Town and Sedgefield Trip – Western Cape, South Africa

Visited a great combo of properties, all of which are ideal for self-drive itineraries, including a lovely safari experience at Bottlierskop Game Reserve. Also visited the new Simbavati Fynbos on Sea (stunning views of beach and lakes, and amazing cuisine), as well as other little gems in Mossel Bay, Swellendam and Montagu.

Alex Rautenbach – Product Destination Manager

Vida Nova Retreat – Western Cape, South Africa

Charming new boutique hotel in the Hout Bay area, serene location against the backdrop of the mountain, with a great gastronomic offering. Classic vintage cars are available for unique experiences in the area. The retreat is part of the Fire Island Eco Retreat portfolio – great conservation projects.

Alex Rautenbach – Product Destination Manager

Coot Club – Western Cape, South Africa

Located on a lagoon close to Stanford and due to open 1 July 2022, Coot Club can accommodate up to 40 guests, with 14 guests accommodated in the new boathouses, which are spaced out along the lagoon shoreline, and 26 in the stone cottages tucked into the milkwoods. When it is time to play, they have kayaks, SUPs, fat bikes, quad bikes and lovely walking trails to keep you busy.

Alex Rautenbach – Product Destination Manager

Morukuru Beach Lodge – Western Cape, South Africa

Overall, this was a wonderful property, which is exceptionally located within the untouched De Hoop Nature Reserve. It is the ideal lodge and a real paradise for the weary traveler. Rooms are amazing and well-appointed with lovely little touches throughout. Every need was met, and the rooms are large and luxurious.

Genevieve Coetzee – WS Reservations Manager

Thornybush Collection, Mpumalanga and Limpopo, South Africa

Properties visited on this trip were Simbambili Game Lodge in the Sabi Sands, and Saseka Tented Camp in the Thornybush. Both properties are amazing (in terms of the décor, rooms and main areas), they are very well run, and the food and game viewing are exceptional.

Genevieve Coetzee - Wilderness Safaris Reservations Manager

Sabi Sabi Selati Camp – Mpumalanga, South Africa

Sabi Sabi Selati Camp is an exceptional camp, which is perfect for those guests wanting a bit of history to their trip. Themed on the old Selati railway line that ran through the Kruger Park, this property has a lot of different areas just to sit and relax and view the various animals coming to the waterhole to drink. Good game viewing from the main areas, good sized swimming pool, friendly staff and great food.

Sandor Theron – Travel Designer

Kapama River Lodge, Limpopo, South Africa

The newly renovated Kapama River Lodge is located within the Kapama Private Game Reserve. All 33 of their Deluxe Suites have recently been upgraded to a more modern feel, which is very spacious. They all have exceptional views over the African bush. The meals were all plated and served in their brand new restaurant. The menu and food was outstanding with a nice variety of options to cater for all dietaries and palates. This is the perfect property for groups and families travelling together, with 4 Family Spa Suites.

Leanne Dost - Product Destination Manager

Isibindi Africa Lodges, Victoria Falls, Zimbabwe

Property visited was Tsowa Safari Island, located at Victoria Falls in Zambezi National Park. A little treasure, a piece of your own paradise situated on a remote Island, which is ideal for an exclusive getaway. The lodge has 8 Meru style tents which all blend into the peaceful and natural surroundings, allowing guests a chance to appreciate the trees, river, animals and amazing bird life.

Dominique Geysler - Product Destination Manager

Please speak to your Travel Designer for more information.