

Greetings from Africa

Ollie Porote, an Exploration guide in Botswana recently guided a Migration Route journey and had the following to say:

“The stay at Xigera Mokoro Trails was great with water activities showcasing elephants and amazing birds. Mekoro lessons for kids and basket weaving for the adults was great fun!

Khwai Discoverer Camp did not disappoint with excellent plains game and great sightings of pelicans, lion and hyaena.

The Linyanti concession blessed us with another pair of mating lions along the river bank. Relaxed evenings around the dinner table were enjoyed with delicious local fare, made even more entertaining by the call of the hippos and frogs and large herds of elephants .

The Chobe Boat cruise was great. Once again large herds of elephants entertained us by crossing the river while lots of water birds we identified. Also a “good close” up with hippos and crocodiles basking in the sun as the day temperatures are still quite low.

Warm Regards
The Wilderness Explorations team
