Victoria Falls Island Lodge

Located on its own private island in the Zambezi River, Victoria Falls Island Lodge boasts three luxury treehouse suites. The lodge is constructed from timber and glass and built on raised wooden decks with private plunge pools and unrivalled river views. Elevated walkways connect the suites to the spacious open-plan lounge and dining areas, all with panoramic views. Access to the island is by boat and activities include sunrise and sunset cruises and morning and afternoon game drives.

The Studio/The Foodbarn

The STUDIO is quite simply "Franck's playground"! This is where he gets to do what he loves in the intimate setting of a stunning home in Noordhoek. Together with Chef Nicky, they source sustainable products as locally as possible, create delicious dishes, pair them to the most exciting local wines around, and then share them with you. The idea is to offer a food and wine experience for up to 26 guests with the package including absolutely everything from welcome drinks on arrival to the full meal and finally coffee from their own Roastery... with service included.
