

July 2014

This month we feature a few key products across southern Africa with distinctive character. These are iconic establishments, offering breathtaking scenery, delectable cuisine and excellent service and are destinations which we highly recommend as an extension to your safari.

With Best Regards,
The Associated Product Management Team

Fairlawns Boutique Hotel & Spa, Johannesburg

Located in a quiet suburb, Fairlawns Boutique Hotel & Spa is a well-kept secret where elegance and opulence is the common thread in each individually themed suite.

The Victoria Falls Hotel, Victoria Falls

Known as the “Grand Old Lady of the Falls” this iconic Edwardian-style hotel offers all the charm of the old. It is a short walk away from the mighty Victoria Falls and is set in lush tropical gardens.

Belmond Mount Nelson, Cape Town

Set in the heart of Cape Town at the very foot of Table Mountain, this tranquil and contemporary hotel offers something to suit every taste. Cycology Tours and specialized walks are available from the hotel.

Tintswalo Atlantic, Cape Town

Nestled just off Chapman's Peak, Tintswalo Atlantic is one of the few establishments in Cape Town that is situated on the shore of the Atlantic ocean. This unique lodge has individually themed suites and offers fine dining with interactive dining.

Tintswalo Safari Lodge, Mpumalanga

This stunning lodge is set in the heart of the Manyeleti Private Game Reserve concession. Each opulent suite offers private viewing decks with plunge pools.

Bushman's Kloof Wilderness Reserve & Wellness Retreat

This special lodge is located in the Cedarberg Mountains and is home to some of southern Africa's mystical rock art. Their unique dining options and nature activities set this lodge apart.
