

ZIMBABWE

An Amazement of Adventures

---

A safari in Zimbabwe with Wilderness Safaris isn't just a game drive! Getting out of the vehicle, your feet on the ground and walking through nature is just one of the many activities we offer, while cultural experiences are also a key part of your journey.

Our camps in Hwange:
Davison's Camp, Little Makalolo,
Linkwasha Camp
Our camps in Mana Pools:
Ruckomechi Camp,
Little Ruckomechi

Game Drives

One of the best ways to explore far and wide and, as our concessions are private, the only vehicles traversing are Wilderness Safaris and conservation or research vehicles.

Log-pile hide

This is the perfect place to spend your afternoon siesta hours. Elephants are often the star attraction; just watch out for the sprays of water propelled from their nearby trunks.

Where? Little Makalolo

River Cruises

A fantastic way to see the large numbers of water birds and other water-loving wildlife that are attracted to the Zambezi River and seasonal pans – particularly in the dry season.

Canoeing

A quieter yet more adventurous option to the river cruise, make your way downriver (note that this requires more exertion).

Where? Our Mana Pools camps

Fishing

Catch-and-release fishing is practised at all our camps.

Bream (tilapia), barbel (catfish) and tigerfish are the some of the common fish to be caught at Mana Pools.

Cultural Experiences

Our authentic village interactions often include a guided tour of the school, meeting the headman or headwoman or enjoying cultural exchanges with the villagers.

Where? Our Hwange camps

Research Centre

Find out about the inner workings of Hwange and its fascinating conservation initiatives and devoted anti-poaching unit.

Star Beds

Nothing beats this romantic and unique way of spending a night under star-studded African skies, surrounded by nature.

Where? Little Makalolo, Linkwasha, Ruckomechi

Victoria Falls

And, no doubt, you will be passing through the Victoria Falls area, for front-row seats to one of the world's great wonders, and for a multitude of adventure and adrenaline activities in and around the mighty Zambezi River.

Where? Toka Leya Camp, Zambia (12 km from Victoria Falls)
