

ENHANCE YOUR BOTSWANA SAFARI

Botswana is perhaps the most rewarding country in Africa in which to experience a big game safari. With its almost miraculous wetland paradise in the desert – the Okavango Delta – and the prolific, diverse Linyanti Concession, Botswana is not to be missed. But where to from there? We highly recommend the three following destinations as ways to enhance your African journey. Each of these offers you a completely different perspective of Africa's natural wilderness, diverse wildlife, rich history, evocative cultural heritage and scenic wonders.
