

June 2016

Greetings from Africa!

Explorations are led by highly skilled and qualified professional guides with an incredible passion for sharing the natural wonders of the wilderness regions they work in. With one guide leading your safari from start to finish, a sense of continuity – together with a consistent and detailed interpretation that is shaped to your specific interest – is ensured. Many of our guides are skilled photographers, from making sure that the safari vehicle is situated in the best location to checking your camera settings where necessary, each are on hand to guarantee that you capture the best possible images.

Thuto Moutloatse

"I have bad knees and have difficulty squatting. Thuto designed a portable toilet chair for use in the bush. This made it possible for me to not have to "hold it" all morning and afternoon and made it easier for all of the women on the trip. Thuto dutifully carried this bush toilet everywhere we went – from camp to camp – and always found a lovely view to set it up"

Ona Basimane

Onalethata Basimane

"We selected our agent for the promise of an experienced guide. Ona more than met our expectations. His commitment to conservation, to training and selecting future guides to insuring we each had a valued experience was outstanding. We were all amazed by his depth and scope of knowledge. We felt privileged to have him as our guide. His enthusiasm was infectious. His knowledge of photography, tracking and animal/bird behaviour enhanced an already amazing ability to inform his guests about Botswana"

Jeremia Mwapopi

"I have to tell you that the person who really made this trip particularly special and memorable was our guide, Jeremia. I can't say enough about him. Not just the tremendous knowledge that he had on all things to do with animals, plants, insects, geology, politics, history – he was just a font of incredible information – but he is also a tremendously personable guy, who helped in any way, shape or form where he felt that he could provide support. He carried the bags, he made sure that we had the right place settings. It was mind-blowing. You have a brilliant guide in Jeremia. The guide is such a critically important person to step into this role."

Brooks Kamanakao

"Everything went according to plan, Brooks was very social, served us in the most satisfactory way and showed a very high level of competence about all animals, birds, Botswana and Africa in general"
