Babylonstoren – Healing Garden

Nature's medicine chest is an ongoing discovery of old and new herbs tried and tested over centuries by different cultures around the world. Originally collected from the wild, the best plants were selected, cultivated and shared. The medicinal garden at Babylonstoren includes a range of beautiful species – some more powerful, aromatic, rare or even dangerous than others, but all with an interesting story worth discovering. We invite you to enjoy this Healing Garden as a quiet space, where you can slow down and blend herbal teas as guided by our gardener Gundula.

La Residence – the Chef's Table

At the Chef's Table in the Great Hall guests enjoy a completely interactive evening with a celebrated chef. The experience begins with a stroll through the gardens, where in the summer months, the abundance of black figs, ripe pomegranates, juicy plums, green artichokes and fragrant herbs will leave you spoiled for choice as you select the ingredients for your feast. The four-course meal is then interactively prepared in front of you. All that remains is for you to enjoy your meal.

The Saxon Hotel & Spa – Sarapana Vegetable Garden

The Saxon's culinary philosophy is to use only the freshest, most flavourful seasonal ingredients of known origin. Sarapana, the extensive rooftop garden, is a hidden treasure that serves as a constant source of inspiration for the Saxon Chefs in creating innovative dishes. At sunrise the Chefs visit the vegetable garden to handpick the day's ingredients, which inspire the seasonal menus and it is part of their daily routine to spend time tending to the garden.
