

MARCH 2016

Exclusive accommodation awaits at Cape Town's beaches...

Cape Town has some of the best beaches in the world, so if you're a sand-and-sea lover be sure to head to the sandy beaches of Camps Bay, Clifton and Llandudno that dot the Atlantic Seaboard, famous for its beautiful views and spectacular sunsets.

Sea Star Rocks

Recently opened, Sea Star Boutique Hotel offers views of Camps Bay, Lion's head and Table Mountain, a refined distance from the buzz of the strip. Only 15 minutes from the central business district and conveniently accessible from Camps Bay drive, this boutique hotel has three suites, Jacuzzi and private plunge pool. Guests can sip a glass of Sea Star wine (cultivated in Franschhoek) looking over the infinity pool out to sea.
