

May 2014

The changing faces of southern Africa offer so many distinctive experiences. From gastronomy delights and wildlife encounters to cultural experiences and adrenaline pumping bungee jumping, there is adventure to suit every palate. With the multitude of options to choose from there is no doubt that this part of the world is unique like no other. We would like to recommend some must-do and bucket-list experiences.

Tswalu Kalahari

Tswalu has earned credibility as THE place to visit. Attractions include the incredible black-maned lions, habituated meerkat colony, mesmerizing sunsets and sightings of the elusive aardvark and pangolin. Tswalu is the perfect accompaniment to a Botswana safari.

Rovos Rail

A truly magical way of experiencing southern Africa as you journey in an old-world luxury train. Impeccable service coupled with fine dining make this an opulent treat. Spend leisure moments absorbing the natural beauty of the countryside. Spend two nights on a journey from Pretoria to Victoria Falls or Cape Town.

Ellerman House Villa

This exclusive villa lies adjacent to the main house and is perfect for a family or group of friends. With uninterrupted views of the Atlantic Ocean, the villa offers direct access to the renowned art gallery and spa. The complete privacy offers a unique experience for metropolitan Cape Town.

Cultural History & Diversity

Our rich cultural history makes this part of the world diverse. The unique tribes of southern Africa include the Zulu of Kwazulu-Natal, Xhosa of Eastern Cape, Venda of Limpopo and Bushmen of the Kalahari. Visits to these areas offer insights into the fascinating ways of life and integration of modern society.

Floral Kingdoms

The flower season in Namaqualand is not to be missed in Spring. During the rest of the year you can experience the joys of fynbos in the Cape. Visit Kirstenbosch Botanical Gardens for a taste of the floral diversity of our region and while you're there enjoy a stroll on the new canopy walkway for a spectacular aerial view of the gardens.

Marine Experiences

The majestic Atlantic Ocean in the Cape offers a range of marine experiences from Seal Island Cruise, to Shark Cage diving. Families would love the Two Oceans Aquarium and Boulders Beach.
