A KENYAN JOURNEY – CELEBRATING 30 YEARS OF "OUT OF AFRICA"

"The views were immensely wide. Everything that you saw made for greatness and freedom, and unequalled nobility." Karen Blixen

In the spirit of the famed "Out of Africa," explore two unique areas of Kenya that beautifully combine diverse wildlife, dramatic scenery, fascinating people and valuable conservation efforts. Your journey begins as you fly by private charter to the Laikipia Plateau where woodlands, grasslands and fertile riverbeds nestle between the iconic Mount Kenya and Great Rift Valley. You then travel to the legendary Maasai Mara for a quintessential African safari encompassing abundant wildlife, endless grassy plains and towering escarpments.

Segera Retreat / Six sumptuous timber and thatch villas rise above a profusion of botanical life, each offering a private sun deck with sun loungers, a swing bed and a Jacuzzi bath.

The convivial and opulent main areas are filled with contemporary African art from the Zeitz Collection. Diverse game viewing and natural beauty is complemented by a culture of wellness that extends to the soil, the environment and the communities that surround us.

“Out of Africa” relics include G-AAMY, the original 1929 biplane used in the film as well as a collection of Karen Blixen’s private journals and unpublished letters.

Angama Mara / With a seat on the edge of Africa’s Great Rift Valley, Angama Mara has views that stretch for miles across the Maasai Mara National Reserve below. Two separate camps of just 15 luxurious tents are fitted with glass frontage and wooden decks. Dining, lounging and socialising take place in the magnificent guest areas which include a handsome brick-clad library. The Pavilion, set between the two camps, is home to a shop, a swimming pool and a fitness room. Activities include tailor-made game drives, walking safaris, “Out of Africa” picnics and opportunities to interact with the Maasai people. Built on the very Ngong Hills that Blixen writes about, Angama Mara is filled with subtle touchpoints that celebrate the much-loved novel and film.
