

NOVEMBER 2016

We have heard you! In pursuit of the real Africa, your guests are wanting more active safaris, a slower pace of travel, and a deeper authentic experience. Therefore this month we feature Horse Back Safaris, the perfect complement to your Wilderness Safaris Journey.

Horizon Horseback

Safaris in Africa are an intimate experience and there is simply no better way of taking in the African bush, than by horseback. Becoming part of a herd of zebra as they canter across the plains, or quietly approaching a browsing giraffe or a basking hippo is a truly amazing feeling. Africa is a very special place, but Africa on horseback is truly magical.

Namibia Horse Safaris

Given the vast open and untamed spaces of this country, Namibia from the back of a horse is the ultimate riding safari for those who love all things wild and free. Namibia Horse Safari Company has over 20 years' experience guiding horse riding safaris in the hauntingly beautiful Namib Desert. Combine this with the Wilderness Safaris Camps in the Sossusvlei and Damaraland areas.

African Horseback Safaris

Combine African Horseback Safaris with our Wilderness Safaris camps and you have the perfect Okavango Delta experience. With its unparalleled wildlife population and annual flooding of the area – leaving vast swathes of the Delta inaccessible to vehicles – taking in this area by horseback is the most natural and exciting means to explore.

Monthly Features

Restaurant of the Month

Tiger's Milk Restaurant - Bryanston

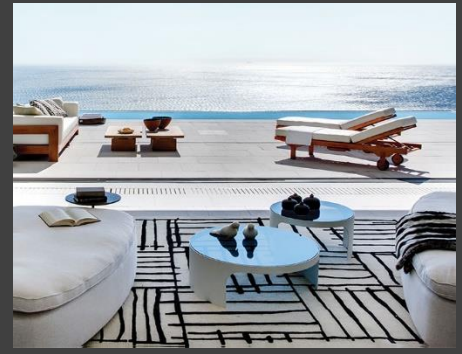

Tiger's Milk is a new bar/food venue that has just opened its doors opposite Riverside Mall in Bryanston, Johannesburg. Its spacious eating areas with a big bar form an incredibly trendy and vibey experience only matching its sister venues in Muizenberg and Long Street in Cape Town. Tour of the Month

Peninsula Art Experience

The day starts with a visit to Imiso Ceramics at the Old Biscuit Mill which is run by four talented individuals, who now export pieces to Europe and USA. We move further down the Peninsula to Kalk Bay to browse some of the many art and antique shops and galleries in this picturesque area. Stroll down to Red Rock Tribal Art to meet Juliette and Steve de Combes to view their private collection of art. Speak to your Journey Specialist or Read more here.

New Kid on the Block

In Residence

These crème de la crème, ultra-luxurious villas are located on the most sought-after street in Cape Town, Nettleton Street. Everything is operated at a push of a button, and they work with a concierge company that will arrange absolutely anything guests desire: from booking tables at top Cape Town restaurants, to body guards and limousine transfer.
