

OCTOBER 2016

“Walking is the perfect way of moving if you want to see into the life of things” said Elizabeth Von Arnim, so this month we are featuring Walking Safaris – a perfect complement to your Wilderness Safaris Journey...

Hwange Walking Safari

This Wilderness Safaris Exploration is an authentic walking safari in Zimbabwe that sets out to discover one of the best wildlife experiences in Hwange. Combine this with roaming further afield by vehicle and you get the best of the private Linkwasha Concession. Its abundance of wildlife is a result of the diverse range of habitats: teak and false mopane woodlands, dry acacia scrub interspersed with pans and vast open palm-fringed plains. Mobile Walking Safari

The Robin Pope Safaris’ Mobile Walking Safaris are found within the remote and true wilderness area of Mupumadzi River, in the northern sector of the South Luangwa National Park. This fully serviced mobile camp is comfortable and well-equipped with three twin walk-in tents and full bedding, accommodating a maximum of six guests. Meals of a high standard are served under the open sky. A final night at Tena Tena or Nsefu completes the safari. Read more here.

Mana Shoreline Walking Safari

The Mana Shoreline Walking Safari is a luxurious mobile camping experience where you leave camp with the sunrise and leisurely walk your way to the next. The wonders of nature, from the tiniest insect to the mighty elephants that roam the valley, begin near the confluence of the Ruckomechi and Zambezi Rivers and continues along the Mana Pools shoreline to Illala Camp across from Chikwenya Island in the Mana Pools “Wilderness area”. “...the lesson I’d been sent to learn – to live life on foot and not in my head, with fearlessness, presence, without expectation, and above all, with gratitude.”

— Jill Paris, Life Is Like A Walking Safari
